

Monsoon Magic - 5 Dishes you will love this rainy season

Restaurants serving the best dishes perfect for this rainy weather.

It might be an inconvenient time of the year but apart from watching the waves splash or long drives in the rain, one of the best ways to enjoy the monsoon is to indulge in your favourite dishes. The rainy season really works up an appetite. There is something about the monsoons that romanticises food and we picked some brilliant dishes at restaurants in Mumbai that you need to eat in this season.

Onion Rings - Cream Centre

Despite multiple outlets across the city, this is one legendary restaurant that is always packed to the gills. It's actually no surprise because some of the food here is just too comforting to miss out on. Plenty of popular picks here but when it's pouring outside there is nothing like enjoying a plate of hot crispy fried onion rings.
